RACING BALLOON ST. LCUIS LOST IN NORTH SEA

Aeronaut Arnold and Companion Saved from Death by Schooner.

BERLIN, Oct. 13.- A wireless message received to-day from N. H. Arnold, the International Cup race, says;

"Lost everything in the North Sea back to Chicago later in the day. last night."

tails are lacking and the port for which the vessel is heading is not known. It is believed here that the fog prevented Mr. Arnold and Mr. Hewitt, who vented Mr. Arnold and Mr. Hewitt, who accompanied him, from seeing the water and that they were blown out to sea without knowing where they were going.

The Belgian balloon Utopia landed at 9 o'clock yesterday evening near Cux-haven, within 500 yards of the beach. The German Roein landed at 4 o'clock on the Island of Norrstrand, and the on the Island of Norrstrand, and the German Pegnitz came down at dawn today about 200 yards from the water, near Bremerhaven. These two airships left Berlin yesterday in the endurance contest, fourth class. Half a dozen others have come down close to the sea. The St. Louis which, with several other balloons in the International cup contest left here on Sunday, was sighted yesterday morning at 11.10 A. M. from Calau, moving in a southwesterly direction.

is the second American balloon in he race to meet with an accident. The Conqueror, with A. Holland Forbes and Augustus Post in the car, blew up at an altitude of 4,000 feet immediately afan altitude of 4,000 feet immediately after the start, and the two occupants had a remarkable escape from death. The Spanish balloon Montanes, another contestant, came to grief yesterday morning over Saxony and dropped 6,000 feet, but the pilot and his assistant reached the ground without sustaining injury.

It was previous to the start of the St. Louis in the race that the Con-St. Louis in the race that the queror met with her accident. news was brought to Aeronaut A as he prepared for his ascent in the St. Louis.

"I would sooner have fallen myself.
I have made cleven ascents with Mr.
Forbes," said Mr. Arnold.
The America II., with Capt. McCoy and Mr. Voghmann on board, landed safely near Cuxbaven this afternoon.

WILHELMSHAVEN, Oct. 12.—Following orders issued by the Admiralty, a notilla of torpedo boats put to sea yesterday evening in order to render assistance to any of the balloonists who might drift out over the water. The observations of these watchers have been interfered with by fog. The flottlia was reinforced by other boats this morning.
